I have cried, O Lord, before my mouth and a door round about my lips.

Incline not my heart to evil words to make excuses in sins.

With men that work iniquity, and I will not commune with the choicest of them.

The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me, but let not the oil.

The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me, but let not the oil...
of the sinner anoint my head.

For my prayer, also shall still be against the things with which they are well pleased, their judgments falling up.

- on the rock have been swallowed up.

They shall hear my words for they are sweet. As when the thickness of the earth is broken up up-

- on the ground, their bones are scattered by the side of hell.
7) But to Thee, 0 Lord, Lord are mine eyes: in Thee have I put my trust; take not a-way my soul.

8) Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me and the traps of the workers of iniquity.

9) Let the wicked ed fall into their own nets, while I a lone escape.

10) I cried un-to the Lord with my voices, with my Voice un-to the Lord.
did I make my supplication.

11) I poured out my supplication before him; I showed before him my trouble.

12) When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knewest my path.

13) In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.

14) I looked on my right hand and behold,

but there was no one that would know me;

15) Refuge failed me. No one cared for my soul.

Just as swine run to a place where there is mire
and bees dwell where there are fragrances and incense, likewise demons gather where there are carnal songs and the grace of the Holy Spirit settles where there are spiritual melodies, sanctifying both mouth and soul.
