

Meat Fare

Tone 6 - Bou $\overbrace{\text{II}}$

(A)

When Thou art a- bout to come to ex- e- cute just judge-ment, $\overbrace{\text{O}}$ $\overbrace{\text{II}}$ Thou just $\overbrace{\text{II}}$ Rul- er + and sit - - test up - on the throne of Thy glor - y $\overbrace{\text{C6}}$

the riv- er of fire $\overbrace{\text{II}}$ flowing be - fore thine al - tan daz - zling $\overbrace{\text{M3}}$ all, and the pow - - ers of hear-

-en stand be - fore Thee in fear, and $\overbrace{\text{B}}$ men are be - $\overbrace{\text{G}}$ ing judged with trib - u - -ta - - tion, $\overbrace{\text{A}}$ each ac - cord - ing $\overbrace{\text{II}}$ to

A
C

→

> 5 (B) his deeds, then O Christ have pit-y on us his deeds, then O Christ have pit-y on us and make us worth-y of those who

and make us worth-y of those who

are saved, us who be - seech Thee in faith;
are saved, us who be - seech Thee in faith;

(S) for Thou art com-pas-sion-ate.
for Thou art com-pas-sion-ate.

(A) Ver-i-ly the books shall be o-Ver-i-ly the books shall be o-

> 5 pened and the works of men shall
pened and the works of men shall

be re- vealed be-fore the ter- -
be re- vealed be-fore the ter- -

-ri - ble throne; and the vale of
-ri - ble throne; and the vale of

mourn-ing shall ech-o with hor-ri-ble
mourn-ing shall ech-o with hor-ri-ble

gnash-ing at be-hold-ing all sin-
gnash-ing at be-hold-ing all sin-

3
J
|
ners vain- ly mourn - ing sent to e- tern-al pun- ish-ment, ac-
(B)
cord - ing to their just sent- -ence.

J
Where-fone we im- plore Thee, O good and com-

J
pas- sion- ate One, pit - y us

J
who praise Thee, o Thou a - lone most

J
mer- ci - ful.

A
(A) | 3
The trum-pets shall blow and the graves shall be emp-ty, and all man-kind

(B)
shall rise tremb- -ling. They who have done good — shall rejoice with joy, expect-ing their re-wards and those who have done ē- — vil shall tremble great-ly moan-ing and shak-ing, as they are sent to suf-fer-ing, sep-a-rat-ed from the ē-lect. Wherefore, O Lord of glory be com-pas-sion-ate toward us, and make us worth-y to be of those who love Thee, for thou art good.—

I shud- der in ter- ror when I think of that dread-ful days I weep

as I con-sid-er the dark-ness

^(M) that shall nev-er see light: ^(B) there the worm-shall not cease, or the fire ^(M) be quenched.

^A the pain of those who re-ject you

^(B) will nev-er end. Save me, your worth-less serv-ant, right-eous Judge, for your mer-cy and com-pas-sion are my

^F on-ly hope. ^G