

THOU ART THE JOY
(Τῶν οὐρανίων Ταγμάτων)

First Mode

Ἦχος ᾠ̣ Πά -

(□) (N) (□)

Thou art the joy of the heav - - en-ly or - ders found on high, and of us men up - on earth a strong help and pro-tec - tion. π̣ Save us, O pure

Vir- gin and Mo - ther of God, as we flee un - to thee in faith; for af - ter

God we have set all our hope on thee, seek-ing re- fuge in thy might -

(N) (□)

- y strength.

Thou art the joy of the heavenly orders found on high, * and of us men upon earth * a strong help and protection. * Save us, O pure Virgin and Mother, * as we flee unto thee in faith; * for after God we have set all our hope on thee, * seeking refuge in thy mighty strength.