

WHAT SHALL WE NOW CALL YOU

(Τί ὑμᾶς καλέσωμεν)

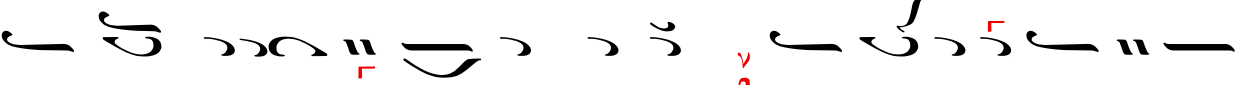

Plagal Fourth Mode

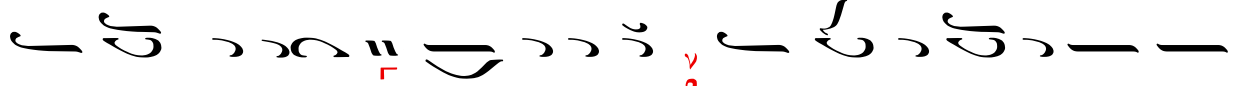

Ἅχος λ̣ δ̣ Νη

 What shall we now call you, O Saints of God?  Ho - - ly Cher-u - bim, for Christ doth rest up - on you at all times.  Six - wing'd Ser - a - phim, in that ___ ye glor - i - fied Him with-out cease.  Pure An - - - gels, ___ for ye showed your bod - - ies nought but scorn;  and Pow - - - ers, ___ for ye work through won - - drous mir-a-cles.  Your names are di - - vers and man - i - fold, but great - er still are your gifts of grace.  O in - ter - cede with the Sav - iour that our souls be ___ saved.

What shall we now call you, O Saints of God? * Holy Cherubim, for Christ doth rest upon you at all times. * Six-wing'd Seraphim, in that ye glorified Him without cease. * Pure Angels, for ye showed your bodies nought but scorn; * and Powers, for ye work through wondrous miracles. * Your names are divers and manifold, * but greater still are you gifts of grace. * O intercede * with the Saviour that our souls be saved.